

“HOME IS WHERE ONE STARTS FROM,”

wrote T.S. Eliot, and home is at the heart of our 2016–2017 season, as we sing
songs of homes loved, remembered, lost, found, and longed for.

Join us for a year of the most touching,
exhilarating music we’ve sung yet.

A Place of Tomorrow

Music, holidays, and children go together, and our December program is all about the children we know, the children we love, the children we once were, and the children who need us. Hear the Vesperae pro Festo Sancti Innocentium by Michael Haydn (Franz Joseph's younger brother!), performed with chamber orchestra, as well as works by Kirke Mechem, Ysaye Barnwell, John Tavener, Cecile Chaminade, and more.

December 3, 2016 at 7:00 p.m.

St. Wilfrid of York Episcopal Church
 18631 Chapel Lane, Huntington Beach

December 4, 2016 at 3:00 p.m.

New venue!

St. Mark Presbyterian Church
 2200 San Joaquin Hills Road, Newport Beach

Adults: $30
 Seniors (65+): $25
 Students (with ID): $15

Rocking the Boat

In our stirring spring concerts, we'll sing of the courage and the nostalgia of refugees, immigrants, and all manner of seekers who leave their homes behind to journey to a strange land. This unique, challenging, and uplifting program features Abbie Betinis's breathtaking From Behind the Caravan: Songs of Hafez, the world premiere of a stunning new commissioned work by renowned composer Joan Szymko, and much more. Join us 30 minutes before each performance to meet the composer!

Adults: $30
 Seniors (65+): $25
 Students (with ID): $15

The Pet Project

Eliza, our Artistic Director, spent 20 years working with pets, so we can't believe it's taken 16 years for the OCWC to sing a concert about them! Cats, dogs, and other critters are on the loose for this program, which also features a very special guest appearance by the Irvine High School Women's Chorus and their director, Tina Peterson.
