(Required for section 501(c)(3) and 501(c)(4) organizations and section 4947(a)(1) trusts, optional for others)

What is the organization's primary exempt purpose?

Providing help and support to teen mothers

Describe the organization's program service accomplishments for each of its three largest program services, as measured by expenses. In a clear and concise manner, describe the services provided, the number of persons benefited, and other relevant information for each program title

28 The Kidsters Childcare and School Readiness Program is designed to nurture and teach the children, while giving teen mothers a safe childcare option so that they can fully devote themselves to learning and growing during the LifeCoach program. Kidsters provides a loving, safe and supervised environment for children, and promotes growth for each child socially, emotionally, cognitively and physically, to help prepare them for Kindergarten and for life.

29 Our mission is to provide a weekly program that shares parenting and life skills education, community resources, tools and real life stories to equip young moms so that they can lead successful, self sufficient, not system-dependent, lives. Fristers serves over 500 teen moms and their children through three program locations in Orange County. At Fristers we are providing transportation to and from the meetings for over 60% of these moms and children, without which they could not attend. We are serving a healthy dinner to both mom and child every week. For some it is the best meal they have all week. These moms are receiving education and support to address their specific needs as a young mom. Their eyes are being opened to opportunities they never imagined, and they are receiving help and hope for their future and hope for the future of their child. Because of our supporters, we are making a difference in a lot of lives.
